How Do I Pray for Ukraine?

War is overwhelming. How do we even begin to pray for the needs of the Ukrainian people and for the people of Russia? Here is a list my husband shared at work. I am also getting daily, specific prayers that I will be posting on my website at <https://www.abidingtruthministry.com/blog/>

- Ask to see God's glory amidst great struggle. God often uses very serious situations to draw people to Himself. Pray that He would be glorified through the people of Ukraine who are following Him. About 70% of Ukrainians declare themselves Christian.
- Pray for God's peace to be a source of strength. Pray for the workers there - both expat and Ukrainians to be comforted by God's Shalom peace. Pray that they would have opportunities to share with others about their trust in God, not governments.
- Ask that this would open doors of opportunities for the gospel. God has a way of showing up when things are difficult. Pray that He would make His name known across Ukraine and Russia as the result of this conflict. May Ukrainians and Russians discover that Jesus is the only true source of peace, safety, comfort, truth, and freedom.
- Pray for a culture in which political disagreements don't lead to hatred and violence. The conflict between Ukraine and Russia can spill over into personal conflict within families, especially when family members live on opposite sides of the border a re influenced by different sides of the :information war." Prayh for unity and love for one another that supersedes the problems between the countries.
- Ask God to deliver Ukraine from evil. May He have mercy and heal this land. May He It's here!

If you are dealing with pain, mental or physical, and wonder where God is in the midst, you will want to read this 30 day devotional. Dara talks about real struggles as she seeks to find God's hand through chronic pain due to spina bifida occulta and depression due to childhood neglect and abuse. Each day offers an encouraging devotion, a prayer , and an opportunity to journal what God is telling you through His word.

You can also join the conversation on the Face Book group: Dancing in the Pain.
